Miscellaneous:

You and we intend that each of the Norton Rose Fulbright entities may enforce these Terms of Use under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 and no term of these Terms of Use is enforceable under Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any other person who is not you or us. If any provision or part of a provision of these Terms of Use shall become illegal, invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever such provision shall be divisible from and be deemed to be deleted from these Terms of Use.

You and/or the User Company may not assign any or all your/their rights or benefits under these Terms of Use nor to transfer any or all of its obligations hereunder except with our prior written consent.

Any formal legal notice to you shall be sent to you at the email address provided by you in registering to become Authorised User.

If for any reason a court of competent jurisdiction finds any provision of these Terms of Use, or any part thereof, to be unenforceable, that provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent permissible and all other terms of these Terms of Use shall remain in full force and effect.

Governing Law: These Terms of Use and any non-contractual obligations connected with it are governed by English law. You and we irrevocably agree that all disputes arising under or in connection with these Terms of Use, or in connection with the negotiation, existence, legal validity, enforceability or termination of these Terms of Use, regardless of whether the same will be regarded as contractual claims or not, will be exclusively governed by and determined only in accordance with English law. You and we irrevocably agree that the courts of England and Wales are to have exclusive jurisdiction, and that no other court is to have jurisdiction to: (i) determine any claim dispute or difference arising under or in connection with these Terms of Use, or in connection with the negotiation, existence, legal validity, enforceability or termination of these Terms of Use, whether the alleged liability will arise under English law or under the law of some other country and regardless of whether a particular cause of action may successfully be brought in the English courts; (ii) grant interim remedies, or other provisional or protective relief. You and we submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts and accordingly any proceedings may be brought against the parties or any of them or any of their respective assets in such courts.
